STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. From an initial ideological posture of "participatory democracy," the current line of the national leadership reveals an adherence to Marxism-Leninism. Michael Klonsky, National Secretary, in March, 1969, called for the building of a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist movement. The program of SDS has moved from involvement in civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war position and finally to its present advocacy of an anti-imperialist line, linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as countries which are leading the world-wide struggles against United States imperialism. On the other hand, SDS regards the Soviet Union as an imperialist power and does not support the policies of that country.

SDS maintains a National Office in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. Its official paper "New Left Notes" reflects the line of the national leadership and program adopted at meetings of the National Council and National Interim Committee (NIC). Three national officers and a NIC of eleven members are elected each year during a June National Convention.

SDS Regional Offices and university and college chapters elect delegates to National Council meetings wherein program and ideology are debated, but each Region and chapter is autonomous in nature and is free to carry out independent policy and programs reflective of local conditions.

The war in Vietnam is still going on. Most people don't dig it. Nixon, Rockefeller, Ford and all the American big business rulers do dig it --and use us for cannon fodder. Why? Because they make money off wars, and because they have an economic world empire to protect. But the Vietnamese people are fighting back and winning! All over the world, poor people are organizing armed struggles against U.S. control. Within this country, the gap between the rich and poor is growing faster than the moon program--with the black community getting things the worst every way. Black people are getting together and fighting the Man--remember the riots, remember New Bethel. We got to get together too. We don't dig America having a world empire. We don't dig these jails they call schools. We don't dig the pigs who put the Black and young people down..

The millionaire ruling class needs passive white people to help them maintain the system. So they give us a few privileges--a few more dollars on the job, a house in white suburbs. But as the American empire is being torn up by revolutions all around the world, it's us, not the rich, who pay the price. We will win our freedom through revolution too! We must fight alongside our Vietnamese and Black brothers to build a new, better society for everybody.

If young people from all the schools and neighborhoods get together and fight, we can build a real power to bring about the changes we need. Like enough thousands of kids tearing up all over the country could force the government out of Vietnam. We must attack the war machine in every city. New expansion planned by Wayne State University and the City of Detroit, which is throwing Black people out of their homes to build new war research buildings, is such a part of the war machine. This is an issue of how the war in Vietnam is fought from Detroit, and a chance to bring the war home to Detroit and help the Vietnamese win.

This is not an issue about university reform or for college students. Universities are a part of the power structure. Wayne State--with its war research and racist expansion--is the enemy of everyone, not just the students there. It can and should be shut down by all young people in Detroit who are willing to act. We must use this demonstration in Detroit, and the National Action in Chicago, October 2-11, to build ourselves into a fighting force of thousands of young people, fighting on the side of the people's liberation struggles throughout the world.

[REDACTED] advised on October 3, 1969, that a meeting was held by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) at the Unitarian Church located on Ballenger Highway, Flint, Michigan, and that Diana Oughton was in attendance at this meeting. During the meeting a discussion was held concerning the planned demonstrations for Chicago on October 8-11, 1969, by SDS. During this meeting, Diana Oughton advised that the purpose for going to Chicago was to cause a confrontation with the police. She stated that they would break out windows in banks and attempt to have students leave the high schools to join them. She also stated that they would bait the "pigs" into committing themselves and when they did, they would resist arrest. [REDACTED] advised that Oughton has been observed passing out literature on the campus of the Flint Community Junior College, promoting the scheduled demonstrations in Chicago.

[REDACTED] advised on October 3, 1969, that a meeting was held by the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) at the Unitarian Church located on Ballenger Highway, Flint, Michigan, and that [REDACTED] was in attendance at this meeting. During the meeting a discussion was held concerning the planned demonstrations for Chicago on October 8-11, 1969, by SDS. During this meeting, Diana Oughton advised that the purpose for going to Chicago was to cause a confrontation with the police. She stated that they would break out windows in banks and attempt to have students leave the high schools to join them. She also stated that they would bait the "pigs" into committing themselves and when they did, they would resist arrest. This source also advised that [REDACTED] has been observed passing out literature on the campus of the Flint Community Junior College, promoting the scheduled demonstrations in Chicago.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. From an initial ideological posture of "participatory democracy," the current line of the national leadership reveals an adherence to Marxism-Leninism. Michael Klonsky, National Secretary, in March, 1969, called for the building of a revolutionary Marxist-Leninist movement. The program of SDS has moved from involvement in civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war position and finally to its present advocacy of an anti-imperialist line, linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as countries which are leading the world-wide struggles against United States imperialism. On the other hand, SDS regards the Soviet Union as an imperialist power and does not support the policies of that country.

SDS maintains a National Office in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. Its official paper "New Left Notes" reflects the line of the national leadership and program adopted at meetings of the National Council and National Interim Committee (NIC). Three national officers and a NIC of eleven members are elected each year during a June National Convention.

SDS Regional Offices and university and college chapters elect delegates to National Council meetings wherein program and ideology are debated, but each Region and chapter is autonomous in nature and is free to carry out independent policy and programs reflective of local conditions.
